

Step 2: Define the Client Interface

- We'll define a Client Interface to specify the method getData that all clients will use to retrieve data in JSON format. This ensures that the client and the adapter can communicate seamlessly.

Step 3: Create an Adapter Class

- Now, we'll create an Adapter class that implements the ClientInterface. For now, we'll leave the methods empty to set up the adapter structure.